

Product Code . JL-OAP-1708

Flow Cup

Description

Flow Cup

Flow Cup no.4 without NPL calibration certificate.

Simple flow cup of the efflux type is used for approximate measurements of apparent viscosity for control of consistency during manufacture and use of paints, lacquers and viscous products.

Flow cups with protective skirt are made from gun metal with stainless steel orifice and are equivalent to Type B cups.

Each cup is supplied with a stand having levelling screws.
