

Product Code . JL-OE-3687

Reflex Hammer

Description

Reflex Hammer

Offered find use as diagnostic instrument and features triangular rubber piece that comes fixed to plated handle.

These hammers find suitability for diagnosis purposes involving treatment of musculoskeletal systems.

Some of its features include providing for precise performance, provide support for judging issues related to joints, bones and ligaments; thermo-plastic-rubber triangular head for gauging myotatic responses when it strikes at precise locations, professional-grade.
