

Product Code . JL-M-8057

Monocular Compound Microscope

Description

Monocular Compound Microscope

JLab monocular compound microscope is the ultimate educational tool with top optical quality and durability.

A conveniently placed handle on the arm allows for easier mobility and hassle-free transfer from place to place.

The modern and versatile design makes it an ideal choice for students.

The WF 10X allowing for increased magnification from 40X to 400X.

A round floating stage helps to make it simple for children to adjust and control the slide under observation.

The ball-bearing objective turret is mounted, allowing for smooth alignment while positive click stops ensure instant and precise magnification.

Packed in a fitted Styrofoam box; includes a dust cover and instruction manual.

Rugged cast aluminum with gray enamel finish.

Specification:-

Head: Monocular, 45° inclined, rotates 360°.

Eyepiece: WF 10X with a pointer.
