

Product Code . JL-SE-9682

Disecto Module System

Description

Disecto Module System

Interlocking system is designed to stack several units high, saving counter space.

The base has four cleats that lock firmly to the cover below when stacked.

Modules can be purchased in any quantity to build an entire system based on the required capacities of your class size.

Modules are designed to stack five high with specimens and instruments intact.

Econopan measures 10 x 7.
